

Emma Smith

+39 999 999 999 9 — emma.smith@gmail.com — linkedin.com/emma-smith

Profile — Motivated, seasoned and proactive individual with more than 8 years of HR management. Background of repeated success implementing best practices and establishing effective HR strategies. Driven to deliver the highest level of service in an efficient and professional manner.

Skills

Communication
HR Policies

Management
Leadership

Experience

HR Manager: 2018–Present

Disney Media Entertainment

- HR budget management for recruitment and development including phasing analysis and monthly reporting. Recruitment and onboarding of talents for sales, marketing, communications, trade marketing, finance, compatibility, operations and HR from apprentices, interns, young graduates, VIEs and full time roles. Acted as a consultant to the CEO and founder team in defining the organisational structure, job descriptions, roles and responsibilities for the ecommerce team.

HR Manager: 2014–2018

Hollywood Video

- Upskilled and trained managers on best practice low level HR to allow them to take ownership and accountability of their times. Successfully set up a new entity and worked closely with legal and external bodies. Managed the recruiting process internally - interviews / 2nd interviews / trials etc. Wrote and delivered weekly training sessions for sales team.

Recruitment Consultant: 2012–2014

Nike

- Worked on the data migration project identifying and re-designing solutions tailored around our business model and way of operating. Provided candidates with a detailed feedback about their interview.

Education

University of Liverpool 2010–2012

Master's in Human Resources

Keele University 2007–2010

Human Resources Degree

Languages

English Fluent
French Native Speaker

Spanish Beginner Level

Hobbies

Horse Riding
Going to the Theatre

Gardening